TSD SUPPORT ANNOUNCEMENT NO. 63

14 July 1964

SUBJECT: Responsibility for Packing and Packaging Specifications on Special Non-Stock Equipments.

1. It is the responsibility of the cognizant project engineer to cite special packing or packaging requirements when requesting shipment of any equipments which have not been tested and evaluated by ESG. Such equipments include prototypes, special modifications or fabrications procured under the work authorization contracts and unique one-of-a-kind type items constructed at QRF.

2. Special packing instructions should include method of shipment, internal blocking or padding if necessary, instructions for partial disassembly for shipment and reassembly at destination, and any other precautions which will enable the warehouse packing and crating personnel to better provide adequate protection during shipment.

3. C/TSD/SS/PASU will insure that the cognizant engineer will be designated on the shipping documents as the person to be contacted for packing instructions.

4. If disassembly is required the work will be performed by the I&WS personnel under the immediate supervision of the cognizant engineer.
